Selectmen's Meeting

WANT 2½ OVERRIDE

Mattapoisett, Rochester and Marion Selectmen will ask voters in their respective towns to approve a move to have Proposition 2½ exemption to a maximum of $500,000. Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta said that estimates of the regional school repair needs total $369,020.00. Parking lot resurfacing is estimated at $172,000, repair to the junior high school roof approximately $119,000, and sewer plant repair, replacement of interior fire doors, draperies and lighting would make up the balance of the $369,020.00 total. Last year the cost of repairs was estimated at one million dollars and the exemption bill died in committee hearings. This year a Special Study Committee came up with the new estimate and Chairman DeCosta said that Selectmen believe they will have a better chance of passage if a dollar figure is included.

ZONING OF WATER VALLEY DELAYED

Chairman John DeCosta of the Board of Selectmen and members of the Mattapoisett Water Valley Study Committee announced that an article for zoning the watershed will not be submitted to voters this year at the town meeting because of questions raised at the public meeting held to gather public opinion. Residents of the area to be zoned had numerous and serious reservations about the proposal even though they were in agreement with its goal of water protection. People at the meeting felt that the area was larger than needed, felt that the town was attempting to protect one area already under salt pollution from 195 and generally felt that property values in the area would suffer because of the rigid restriction which would make it necessary to petition from Board to Board in order to build.

Taking these comments into account, the committee felt that an expanded committee to include residents of the area should study the matter in greater depth. The area is roughly 1/5 of the town and some of it is not wetland even though included in the area to be zoned. Further study will consider how development of this land can be done and still protect the river. Mr. DeCosta said that livestock owners who have always had animals on farms along the river are concerned about their grazing pastures and want assurance that they will be free of restriction.

Gauging the concerns of the public meeting, it was felt that more study was needed to present a proposal that would properly protect the water supply while acceptable to the residents of the area.

APPROVE HIGH TECH AREA

Selectmen received a letter from John R. Pagenkopf, co-chairman of the Mattapoisett-Marion-Rochester Council of the Chamber of Commerce, notifying the Board that the area Chamber has unanimously voted to support the actions of Mattapoisett regarding the development of a high technology area.

SCHOOL DISCUSSION

A request was received from Rochester requesting a meeting with the Boards of Selectmen of Marion and Mattapoisett to discuss the possibility of utilizing available space in the Marion and Mattapoisett schools to alleviate the problem of insufficient space in Rochester.

This meeting is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 2nd, at the Rochester Town Hall.

Mattapoisett Election

SWAN is a play that is both thought-provoking and funny. It is a comment on American life, written by Telo Reifel. All ages will enjoy it.

There will be a special matinee for Senior Citizens on Saturday, the 19th. A special luncheon at Thad's is available to Seniors who wish it.

Players are familiar faces to theatre-goers in this area. George Carns of Marion returns to the boards again. Larry Bennett who is noted for his lead roles in Little Theatre joins him. Mary Stedman of Dartmouth makes another of her appearances.

The Jaycees give you a cordial invitation to come to the New Bedford Vocational-Technical High School on Ashley Boulevard on the 18th and 19th of March for a premiere of a new play. Evening curtain is at 8:00 and the matinee at 2:00.

all who contributed to our very successful Dinner-Fashion Show held February 15th at the Lodge of Elks. A fine roast beef dinner served by the Elks was enjoyed by over 200 people, followed by "Spring Tease of Dutchmaid Fashions". Models were complimented by Jafra Skin Care. Our sincere thanks to all who attended, modeled, made posters and to our organist. Our thanks to the Main Street merchants and others who gave generously for the raffle. We truly appreciate all the publicity from the newspapers, radio and TV. Dutchmaid Fashions can still be ordered through Jean Chaston at 295-1989 before March 9th to give Hospice the credit for the sales. Following the fashion show board members described the purpose and meaning of Hospice. This Dinner-Fashion Show was the first fund-raiser for the Wareham Area Hospice Association. It was announced that volunteers are completing the training course and will soon be available for service through the public health agencies in Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester, Carver, Bourne, Sagamore, and Wareham. Again our thanks to the Wareham Lodge of Elks for helping to make it all possible.

MATTAPOISETT HISTORICAL SOCIETY NOTES

"THE BUZZARD", a local summer newspaper of the 1890's, tells of a large audience in attendance for the first sermon by the new Minister of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church, Rev. Henry Phelps, in the newly redecorated "main audience room".

To quote: "The interior of the building has been entirely renovated, paint and plaster being used quite liberally. The ceiling of the audience room has been painted in water colors. The area surrounding the central figure is a beautiful shade of light blue, and large panels of a shade of fawn color are painted outside of the blue.

"The walls are overlaid with a finish called 'texture', which is a coating of hard plaster or cement, stamped or creased by hand into beautiful figures. The artists were Brazer & Prade of Boston. This 'texture' is covered in oils. The dado and Romanesque frieze border the 'texture', and are overlaid with bronze color. The moulding of the texture over the pulpit is more elaborate, and presents a very pretty appearance.

"The front of the pulpit platform has been nicely finished in black walnut, which is a decided improvement over the old platform.

"The pews have been carefully attended to. Eight pews have been removed from the back of the house and two from the front in order to give more room for passing from one side to the other. The doors to the pews, which have bothered the pew holders for many years, have been removed. The cushions have been newly upholstered in bronze damask, and a uniform style of carpet has been laid throughout the church, three hundred and eighteen yards of carpeting having been used.

"All the woodwork in the audience room and entry has been painted, and the general effect of the colors is pleasing to the eye. Good looking steps of hard pine have been laid at the entrance.

"The cost of these improvements has been in the neighborhood of $1,000, which was made up by voluntary contributions."

It is hoped that the Rev. Raymond D. Patch, new minister of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church, will not feel "slighted" that the church has not been "textured" for his arrival.

Kindergarten Teaching Aids

Kindergarten students at Rochester Memorial School are busy using teaching aids as part of the Early Prevention of School Failure program. The materials, constructed and donated by Rochester Woman's Club members, reinforce concepts children are learning in kindergarten.

A pre-kindergarten screening process identifies strengths and weaknesses of every student. This program recognizes that each child has a unique rate of development. Availability of these teaching aids in the classrooms means children can work alone or in small groups on various concepts as they are ready.

Gardens in Lakeville will give the first lecture on "INTRODUCTION TO HERBS". The introduction will delve into the history of herbs and herb-lore that developed.

The second lecture of the series will be given by Ann Cummings who writes "IN THE GARDEN', a familiar and informative Sunday Standard-Times column. Her lecture on April 5th will be on "STARTING AN HERB GARDEN". For those who have always harbored the dream of planting an herb garden but never knew where to begin, here is the opportunity to question an expert and learn from her experience.

On April 12th the third lecture, which will also be given by Ann Cummings, will follow that progress of the herb garden into cultivating the plants, drying them, and learning about their many medicinal uses, culinary contributions and how to preserve their famous fragrances.

The value of herbs as a natural resource, a source of pleasure and good health will be thoroughly covered in our evening lecture series. Begin Spring with a new plan for your garden. Please join us for our evening lecture series on "HERBS".

The Children's Musuem will also be offering one separate lecture on VEGETABLE GARDENING with Ann Cummings on Tuesday, March 29th.

This lecture will be offered just in time for instruction on how to start seeds indoors in anticipation of preparing the earth for your vegetable garden.

Following the lecture, there will be a question and answer period.

Please call the Children's Museum for further information or if you wish to register for the lectures for which there will be a charge. Telephone 993-3361.

IRISH STORYTELLER

On March 12th, the Saturday before St. Patrick's Day, the Children's Museum is pleased to announce a program that will bring out the Irish in everyone. Children four and up are invited to come and hear Irish Storyteller Maggie Pierce, who will perform here at the Children's Museum at 2:00 p.m. Maggie will entertain children and adults alike with stories, songs, and rhymes from her childhood in Belfast. This will be a chance to bring a little of Ireland into your life and meet this imaginative, warm-hearted and humorous lady from the Emerald Isle.

Maggie is a well-known storyteller living in Fairhaven who has two books to her credit, "Keep the Kettle Boiling" and "Storyteller's Guide". She teaches the art of storytelling at Roger Williams College, is a regular performer at many storytellers' festivals, and has just recorded a tape called "Maggie Pierce--LIVE!" So wear a bit of green and return with Maggie to the days of St. Patrick at her storytelling afternoon here on March 12th.

Homemade Irish edibles will be served. Please call the Museum if you plan to attend; there is a charge.

Plymouth County Republicans

Nearly 200 Plymouth County Republicans met recently at the Halifax Country Club for their annual Lincoln Day Dinner-Dance. The guest speaker for the evening was Ray Shamie, the Walpole businessman who waged a strong campaign against Ted Kennedy in 1982. Shamie urged the members of his audience to get involved - in local, county, and state politics. The title of his speech was "Massachusetts Republicans--Where do we go from Here?"

Senator Edward P. Kirby of Whitman was the master of ceremonies. He introduced many party officials and old-guard Republicans, but also recognized the many younger men and women in the audience. "Those of you who are here for the first time are the ones we need the most", Kirby said. "If Republicans are to increase their strength in the State House, we must start by welcoming new members with open arms."

Among those introduced were Lawrence Novak of Brockton and Anna Doherty of Marshfield. They are running in special elections this spring necessitated by the resignations of incumbent Democrats. County Republicans were urged to assist

DINOSAURS, PUPPETS & PICASSO AT ZEITERION

The Performing Arts Repertory Theatre of New York City will present Dinosaurs, Puppets, and Picasso at the ZEITERION THEATRE on Friday, March 11th, at 10:30 and 12:30, featuring award winning puppeteer, pianist and artist Marshall Izen.

The Children's show includes Birth of a Puppet with music by Beethoven. Two hands, each with a distinct personality, play with simple objects. One hand uses these props to turn the other into a clown puppet who mimes a lovely little story. In Jack and the Beanstock, with music by Izen, a red triangle represents Jack, a blue blob plays the giant, and Izen challenges the children to follow the story, told in a very different way. The Dinosaur Tale shows how, simply to make rod puppets, and leads into a play where a baby Brachiosaurus encounters the terrible Allosaurus and meets other dinosaurs along the way.

Wind and The Sun, music by Chopin, Marshall turns a page of numbers into a picture of the traditional clown Pierrot. Pierrot then appears to enact a story told entirely in song, which is the Aesop fable done as little opera. Finally, in About Picasso, Marshall transforms Pierrot into a Picasso-like portrait, and turns two pianos and a violin into cubistic abstract sculptures.

Marshall Izen, the star of the show, won two Chicago Emmy Awards for "outstanding individual achievement as creator, writer, performer, and set designer," and "outstanding children's series".

JUDY GARLAND STARS IN A STAR IS BORN

The ZEITERION THEATRE will present the immortal film A Star is Born on Friday, March 11th, at 8:00 p.m., and Saturday, March 12th, at 2:00, 7:00 and 9:40 p.m.

The film stars Judy Garland and James Mason, and features the classic songs "The Man That Got Away" and "Born in a Trunk", by Ira Gershwin and Harold Arlen.

A Star Is Born's story concerns Esther Blodgett (Garland), a band singer discovered by aging and slipping movie idol Norman Maine (Mason). Maine convinces a film studio mogul to cast Esther in a major role and she becomes Vicki Lester, an overnight success. She marries Maine, but their happiness is brief. The studio concentrates on Vicki. Norman's career is eclipsed and he returns to drinking; humiliating Vicki and himself before a national television audience on the night she wins an Academy Award.

Much action follows, of course - do come see for yourself.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATION WITH THE CHIEFTAIN'S AT ZEITERION THEATRE

The ZEITERION THEATRE will celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a performance by The Chieftains on Tuesday, March 15th, at 8:00 p.m.

The ever-popular lusty Irish band will play traditional music using Ullean pipes, bodhrans, fiddles, flutes, and harps. The Chieftains' music crosses all age barriers as seen by the variety of their fans. They have opened for Mick Jagger on one of his concert tours, and recorded with Art Garfunkel and Eagles drummer Don Henley. Eric Clapton, Jackson Brown, Van Morrison, and Linda Ronstadt have all requested that The Chieftains record with them. Paddy Moloney. the chief of The Chieftains, has recorded with Paul McCartney and Stevie Wonder.

Also one of their fans is the gracious matriarch, Rose Kennedy. Last year, at the age of 92, and after not playing the piano for many years, Mrs. Kennedy was so taken by the music of The Chieftains that she played "Sweet Adeline" with the group at the compound in Hyannis.

The Chieftains have appeared on Saturday Night Live, won an Oscar for the soundtrack of the film, Barry Lyndon, and have recently been nominated for a Genie (Canada's version of the Oscar) for the film, The Grey Fox, a story about Canada's first train robbery. The most famous exponents of traditional Irish music in the world, The Chieftains have 12 albums to their credit since they formed 20 years ago in Dublin.

bank accounts, insurance proceeds, uncashed gift certificates, payroll checks, customer overpayments and the like that have gone untouched for at least five years are deemed to be abandoned. All such accounts are to be reported to the Treasurer, who then attempts notification. Last year Treasurer Crane returned more than half ($18 million) of the $35 million in reported abandoned accounts to the rightful owners or legal heirs.

Crane said compliance with the law is improving. Nevertheless, he said he is not totally satisfied. "We have had to assume the role that rightfully belongs to banks, insurance companies and other institutions. It is apparent that less than a sincere effort is being made by some of these institutions to find the owners. How can anyone fail to locate unclaimed owners such as: The Internal Revenue Service; Sears, Roebuck and Company; Boston City Hospital; or the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston," the treasurer asked?

Carne noted one important aspect of the unclaimed money law requires that "until claimed, all funds are kept in the state's general fund where they are invested for the benefit of all residents and taxpayers in Massachusetts."

People in this area are: Barnes, William W; Clarke, Kenneth O.; Cohen, Gertrude; Corletta, Thomas P.; Dover Estates, Inc.; Faunce, Edith D.; Gargill, Lynn A.; Gibbs, III, Pamela, Pardon N.; Hart, Paul J.; Hart, Audrey M; Hartshorn, Marion P; Pierson, David W.; Hastings, Donald; Healy,
